

Arianna Fusaro

I diritti della personalità dei soggetti collettivi

Ed. CEDAM, 2002, Padova.

The book is about the associations' law.

In particular, it describes the privacy rights of the associations, verifying if the statutes – related to the privacy rights - issued for natural people, can be applied to associations too.

Firstly the author points out the associations that can be owner of privacy rights, then she analyses them one by one.

In the end, the author specifies when the judge may give to one of the parties a compensation for moral injuries related to associations' privacy rights.
